

What is energy chart?

Energy chart is an ancient Chinese knowledge which has long been a treasure of the Chinese. It can predict how much energy or chance that you can accomplish tasks that you want to do, either it is work, dating or your health. Since it is highly popular in China, Sky Fortune Int'l Ltd and Right Forest Ltd jointly developed this app for the world to take advantage this great knowledge of the ancient Chinese.

How to use the app?

First of all, register a user. All you need to enter is as follows:

- A username of your choice
- Your email address
- Your gender
- Your birth date and time

How to use the app?

After processing, you can preview your energy level in the coming 7 days. There is lucky color for each day, representing this color will increase your success index.

How to read indexes (Success index vs Risk index):

For example, Today (220 – 170)

220 is your success index, which means the chance for you to succeed overall

170 is your risk index, which means the risk that you will need to take overall in order to succeed

How to read index numbers?

> 600: Excellent
Most matters can succeed

400 – 600: Good
Smooth, things can be accomplished easily

200 – 400: Fair
Be patient! And then work can be done.

< 200: Bad
Problems arise, difficult to resolve.
